

Best Friend

YN Jay

I was sittin' at the crib thinkin' like, "Damn, I be workin', man"
I be out grindin', puttin' time in, you know
Puttin' real work in
Like, sometimes I think, like, is people
Is other people out here grindin' like this? Or is it only me?

Sometimes I think, "Is it only me?"
I'm in a world full of people, but it's only me
It's just me, myself, and I, like it's only me (Yeah)
I'm in the room, it's all black, if I could only see (What?)
I don't never take shit that don't belong to me
Baby, where you finna go? You comin' home to me?
Freak, bitch, give me head until I fall asleep
Damn, you on my team, why you ball on me?
You ain't got my phone number, but you can call on me
If I bring you up here to the top, just don't fall on me
I be out here gettin' too much money, you can't get all of me
You can't get all my time
Johnny Dang diamonds, I just wanna shine
I walked up to a random girl, like, "Why you so damn fine?"
Damn, like, why you look so good?

Ayy, you look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look even better when you stand next to your best friend

I got a question, can you stand next to your best friend?
Yeah, ayy, I ain't gon' lie, you and your friend look so good together
Ayy, don't worry 'bout shit, we gon' be good forever
I'm tryna make it, I can't stay in the hood forever
I ain't just ballin' for the moment, bitch, this shit forever
I met her friends, they all fine, we had to get together
These niggas click up when it's beef, they gotta get together
I ain't just come up by myself, we gettin' rich together
I'm with your bitch, I brought my bitch, we did some shit together
Two hoes versus me, it's finna be a night
I'm gettin' blew like airplanes, I just need the flight
I left my bitch on read 'cause she don't think I'm right
Nigga died, but he ain't dead, he said he seen the light
Ayy, I left my bitch on read 'cause she ain't read it right
I'm in the water, left her sun, I'm playin' the seas tonight
Sometimes I think if I ain't never rap, what would I be tonight?
Can somebody send me the video, I'm tryna see the fight
You said somebody fought, but ain't nobody fightin'
How people always do you wrong? Like ain't nobody right
I ain't goin' to the club today, this ain't that type of night
Ain't no one-on-ones, I'm jumpin' in, this ain't that type of fight

You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, but you look better with your best friend
You look good, you look so damn good
You do
