Ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

You know what I'm sayin'?

Ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else (No, Julius)

Love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

Love yourself, ayy, love yourself, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

Love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else (Yo, Stackz, open up, what the fuck are you doin' in there?)

Ayy, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

Love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

You gotta love yourself, you gotta love yourself, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

Love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else

You gotta love yourself, ayy, love yourself

God gave me a gift for seein' shit before it happen

But how my nigga die and I ain't see it comin'?

While I wanted some respect, it ain't shit to get some money

Still got the same phone, but I got a different number

I ain't know she ran track, but I know she was a runner

You lookin' for a new job? You can be my store runner

Ben Simmons from the three, he ain't really got no jumper

I kill shit in the woods, but I'm really not no hunter

You feel like Adam22, you ain't really got no jumper

Why you say her pussy good if you didn't really fuck her?

I don't want my bitch no more, but she know I still love her

I know that ain't my bitch no more, but sometimes I still fuck her

I know this life shit ain't promised, but I promise I'ma live

Ain't got no son or no daughter, I can't die without no kids

Piles of 'bows of Coochie Runtz, told bro stop the cigs

Rap shit fake as fuck, most this shit really rigged

Everybody ain't gon' win a Grammy

Your mama and your daddy got a mama, everybody get two grannies

But my granny died when I was young

I ride for my niggas, my ambition as a thug

Aww, nigga, how the fuck you steppin' in some Uggs?

Baby really cute, but she look better in the club

Like, baby, how you gon' love somebody and you don't even love yourself, baby?

That don't even make sense, you gotta love yourself

You should start with yourself

You know what I'm sayin'?

Ayy, love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy

Love yourself before you love somebody else (Thank you, GC)

Love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy

Love yourself, love yourself (No, Julius)

Love yourself before you love somebody else, ayy
