

(Fight) The Good Fight

Yngwie Malmsteen

Axe to grind
Draw the line
Fight the good fight
To the end

Never look back, just keep charging ahead
Spear and my sword and my shield by my side
How many miles to the city of gold?
Ride into battle with glory and pride

Axe to grind
Draw the line
Fight the good fight
To the end

Running out of fumes, nowhere to go
I see the light in the end that I know
Over the hills, so far away
So many miles and eons to come

Axe to grind
Draw the line
Fight the good fight
To the end

Never look back, just keep charging ahead
Spear and my sword and my shield by my side
How many miles to the city of gold?
Ride into battle with glory and pride

Axe to grind
Draw the line
Fight the good fight
To the end
Axe to grind
Draw the line
Fight the good fight
To the end
