

My Type

YNW Bortlen

Okay, Bort, what the fuck?
You out there in Miami slingin' dick, bitch
And you won't answer the motherfuckin' phone, bitch
Say it one more time

You the type of girl that I like, you my type
If you stay real, I might just make you my wife
But it ain't gon' be that easy, you gotta please me
Don't ever tease me
I'm watchin' you just like my TV
'Cause, you the type of girl that I like, you shine bright
Never seen nobody quite like you in my eyes
All you gotta do is stay true, I'ma take you places you ain't never been Might make you my main boo, you just gotta keep it real

'Cause, all my life, I had that fake shit (I do, I do, I do)
It's only one of you, so, don't be two-faced
I like you 'cause you keep it G, so, don't switch on me
Stay the same, please, we can be a team
'Cause, you got what I like, oh, yes, indeed
I think you my type, you might be for me
And, baby, [?], let me learn from off of stage, 'cause I'ma leave you and me
And, maybe we can pull off in a foreign
And [?] switch lanes like Tory (Big body bitch)
And, we'll sip Henny for the day
Baby, right here, M.I.A., baby

You the type of girl that I like, you my type
If you stay real, I might just make you my wife
But it ain't gon' be that easy, you gotta please me
Don't ever tease me

(Lil Tory, ayy)
Baby, I like, know you my type
Hit your Insta', up and sideswipe
I fuck who I like
Kill that pussy, I got five strikes for every five nights
I fucked you once, knew you was different
I started slippin'
And, even back in, that pussy slippery, I had to get it in
I'm takin' you all day for candle lights, your hips, I handle right
I'm standin', but, look, without you, girl, I ain't standin' right, and I can't manage right
I ain't never felt this way about it, should I stay around her?
To throwback, probably run away and make my way about her
But I'm fuckin' with lil' mama, got nothin' to say about it
And if I leave her to you niggas, then I'm wildin' (Tory)

You the type of girl that I like, you my type
If you stay real, I might just make you my wife
But it ain't gon' be that easy, you gotta please me
Don't ever tease me
