YNW BSlime

(Kst you so brazy)
(Hey Track, you ran off with this one)
(Damn, Savion aha)
(Yung Shad, you killed this track)

Before the money, before the fame
There was a lot of thunder clouds, so much rain
Sleepin' on them pallets, this shit done changed
On cold December' when nobody knew my name
Now I'm gold status
Streets turned me to a savage (See me)
Seen incarceration my whole life
How the fuck it ain't get near me
But fuck the money, I'll take the fame
Forever broke and I'm addicted to the pain

So many memories happen in my sleep
God, I surprise I even close my eyes
My heart is so damaged and broken
It's bleeding seeking medical supply
My life is too damn hard for death to come so easy
Either they lockin' me up behind bars
Or these streets gon' end up killing me
It's for the V's and I stand alone, stay to myself
I don't need nobody in my center, don't need your help
I'm fightin' demons in my head, feel like it's hell in there
They crucify you when you [?] but they don't really care

Before the money, before the fame
There was a lot of thunder clouds, so much rain
Sleepin' on them pallets, this shit done changed
On cold December' when nobody knew my name
Now I'm gold status
Streets turned me to a savage (See me)
Seen incarceration my whole life
How the fuck it ain't get near me
But fuck the money, I'll take the fame
Forever broke and I'm addicted to the pain

Imagine it's the same, with pain comes change
Nights turn to nightmares
Sunnyness turn to rain
Can't nobody save you from yourself when you drownin'
Good times just bad times, depending on the timing
Demons in my head but all these blessings from the sky
Wanna be strong, but I'm too weak, I don't know why
Tears right in my eye, but inside I just cry
Feel like everyone I love leaving my side
I know I could tell 'cause it's blinded by the riches
All they see is fame, money, and the business
I walk through the stone, forever on my own
The world wasn't watching 'cause the T.V. wasn't on

Before the money, before the fame
There was a lot of thunder clouds, so much rain
Sleepin' on them pallets, this shit done changed
On cold December' when nobody knew my name

Now I'm gold status
Streets turned me to a savage (See me)
Seen incarceration my whole life
How the fuck it ain't get near me
But fuck the money, I'll take the fame
Forever broke and I'm addicted to the pain

Yeah-yeah
The pain yeah
