It's different
It's different
It's different

'Cause I'm in another lane
And they wanna ride my wave

And they wanna ride my wave

Man I'm on a mission
It keep my diamonds glistening
And the way I live my life, man it's really different
Your momma in the kitchen and she whippin' chicken
Might send her back tonight, tryna see how yall livin'
Go away yeah throw away
Don't know if it's gonna rain or snow today
My wrist on froze today
Designer clothes in May
And that's why I say the weather's gonna change
You not kidding me, don't pretend to be
They pretend like they love me but really they just frenemies
They act like they above me but really I'm making history
And she know that she likey if she even get a kiss from me

It's different
It's different
It's different
It's different
'Cause I'm in another lane
And they wanna ride my wave

It's different

It's different
'Cause I'm in another lane
And they wanna ride my wave

Okay okay let's go
If you really wanna roll
Cause I know how to rock
Ay, Louie V Gucci socks
Brodie got a glizzy make itpop
It make her heart stop
It make your heart drop
If you in the picture you get cropped out
And I know what it's about
Made it to the top how you like me now
And they all want a text wanna type me now
Say I'm sorry what is that about now
And I'm not sorry, no I'm not sorry
Say you like to party, I don't party

Hey hey woah huh yeah yeah
