

Vulnerable

YNW BSlime

I been moving, they say I'm losing focus
I'm just broken, I hope they didn't notice
I'm way too vulnerable, I left my heart too open
I seen this coming though but now these tears is flowing tonight
They keep flowing
And they be like BSlime how you just keep going?
My brother said he way too proud and that I'm chosen
I left my feelings open tonight

Oh, oh, oh
I left my feeling open tonight
Oh, oh, oh
I left my feeling open tonight

Now that I'm getting older the weight on my shoulder
It keeps pulling me closer, thinking my heart is frozen
And I'd rather be lonely
Yeah I'd rather be lonely
Oh
Feeling like I never felt so cold
Left my feelings open tonight
Oh
Yeah she walked away with my heart in the snow
Left my feeling open tonight

Feelings, man you know what kills me?
Say you miss the old me but I just miss the real me
Man I'm feeling empty inside, don't feel appealing
Been up all night with the guys they can't heal me
I just got a lot on my mind, I been thinking
I been up all night tryna stay out the deep end
I don't no time for no girls who be tweaking
Mama told me never fall in love, I don't need it

I can spread my wings, wipe my own tears
Have no fears

I been moving, they say I'm losing focus
I'm just broken, I hope they didn't notice
I'm way too vulnerable, I left my heart too open
I seen this coming though but now these tears is flowing tonight
They keep flowing
And they be like BSlime how you just keep going?
My brother said he way too proud and that I'm chosen
I left my feelings open tonight

Oh, oh, oh
I left my feeling open tonight
Oh, oh, oh
I left my feeling open tonight
