Kayla worth like 20 mil'
Maria worth a dubb
So you don't need no Only Fans, & you don't have to work in clubs
Your brother worth another 20 and he a hustla
So y'all off to a good start
Just got to run it up
I ain't do this shit by myself
Shout to my niggas who helped
Create generational wealth
And when we steppin', we step
They think we gangstas
Just got cars and guns
Entrepreneur, we got stocks and bonds

No matter what happen, you gon' be rich forever
No matter what we go through, you gon' be my bitch forever
No matter what happen, Ima rep the click forever

I forgive you niggas
You didn't know no better
Good hearted Gotti, he down to help whoever
Never cross my guys
It never cross my mind
Never got in niggas business, just stayed in mine
Turn street niggas to millionaires
I done that 4/5 times
No tough shit but I'll deal with shit if they cross that line
Whole world shut down
Still paid my whole staff
5 million in overhead for 2 years
Better do that math
8 figures in the pandemic
Dished it out without even blinking

Depend on my people
My people depend on me
I do it without thinking
Bruh gon' hold this shit down if no one do
If I lost it and had nobody, I know I got you

No matter what happen, you gon' be rich forever
No matter what we go through, you gon' be my bitch forever
No matter what happen, Ima rep the click forever
