One day all of a sudden you made a change to our lives
It started off as some lazy letters
Sent by the you that's living in the past
What a mysterious encounter

Right now in my era
We live in a life with all kinds of different things
Pour our feeling into words when writing to each other
And sprouted the unknowing romance

We will never meet each other
That are from two different worlds

Words to spell
Thoughts to solicit
These things that worried without knowing

I'm always looking forward to your words and letters
Even we live in different times
We travel through time to pass on each other's thoughts
If I can fulfil my dream
I wish I can see you in a blink of an eye
Because I really like you

Inadvertently remembered that tomorrow
In the era you're living in
The things that happened, the things that made you sad
Needs to be conveyed to you
So please make the miracle happen

As time goes by, as season changes
Those letters that stopped since then
Remains words that can no longer be conveyed
Its heart-wrenching

Far away and beyond
I simply want to meet the you for a hundred years later
I pray when that moment came
I will still be walking
With those agonies in mind
The letters that were sent to me
Contains familiar words that I used to look forward
That's the day you climbed beyond
And wrote me the last love letter
Even we live across eight thousand eras
You hold on to the proof that you lived in your era
One day, I will take everything I witnessed in my era
And pass it to you
