I always cause you so much trouble

Always giving you a hard time

And yet, you still stay by my side

I want to stay close to you forever

Vague words don't get through

To your earnest heart

I want to take a peek, I want to melt it

In times like that, how about a little magic?

(I wonder what will come out?)

Let's go, ready set! (Try, try, try)
Even if it's vague (It's fine, it's fine)
Which one to pick? Watch me do magic
Oh no, things turned out even crazier than expected!

I'm sorry, but I just can't stop now
My overflowing feelings are spinning out of control

Sprinkling a happy image
And spinning it around with fancy magic
You'll scold me again, saying I overdo it
But hey, I love these kinds of day by day
Ever since that day, I fell in love with you
And that won't change, forever it's only you
So hey, there's no time for hesitation
Grab that happy ending
I want to keep smiling by your side forever

I was always left out (All those lonely days alone)
Then you appeared in front of me
Carrying the same loneliness
You're such a gentle person

There are still so many things to worry about
But now, neither of us are alone
These noisy yet precious days
I hope they go on forever (Three, two, one)

Fly high with a happy image
With the most dazzling fancy magic
You'll scold me again, saying I overdo it
But I like those kinds of day by day
Ever since that day, I fell in love with you
I want you to notice my love in you
That's why, no time for hesitation
What kind of priming will come next?
And again today, a new happening
I wonder tomorrow, what kind of silly thing might happen?
Stay with me and keep watching forever
