YOHIO

what do we gain?
they're all insane
nothing to say
for themselves
show us the way,
lead us astray
give it all up
to feel safe

self-prescribed
addiction,
this is our
affliction

i will ne-ver
sleep a-gain

taking back contol
a slight insinuation to
divide and conqler
crowd controle
you're snug
as a bug in a rug
it takes some
interdiction to

give me a throne
leave us alone
preaching the ways
of the dead
playing a game,
you're all the same
but i've never heard of your
name

self-designed
conviction,
this is your
religion

i will ne-ver

when push come
you're gone at
the drop of a dime
the clock to wintertime
beware of
all of the eys
in the shadows

so beat around
the bush
'cus ignorance
is bliss
but we know,
yes we know
which way
the wind is blowing

let the slee-ping
dogs lie dead

you're snug
