

Cut And Run (Gutted)

Yoke Lore

I'll be the end of your affinity to cut and run
You'll be the map I read to heal and get me through this one
You feel your way to the mountain passes there I lay
You use your body like a compass lead me to the sky

Find a way
Find a way
Through the pain
When it's gone
You wish it stayed

Find a way
Find a way
Say her name
Keep her there
Don't let it fade

The slope of your neck give me something to believe in
But when the beat hits the base it takes away my aching
You make me forget myself, but I love you I don't want anybody
else

I'll be the end of your affinity to cut and run
You'll be the map I read to heal and get me through this one
I love the parts of you for safety's sake you keep inside
I love the ugly pieces haunting you at night

Find a way
Find a way
Through the pain
When it's gone
You wish it stayed

Find a way
Find a way
Say her name
Keep her there
Don't let it fade

The slope of your neck gives me something to believe in
But when the beat hits the base it takes away my aching
You make me forget myself, but I love you I don't want anybody
