

Fade Away

Yoke Lore

The ways we intake each other from the ashes of dreams
I swim in my lane, but I feel your ripples in me

I'll be your flashlight in the black of this night
I will shine my third eye, light it up and pay the price

And I won't fade away if you don't fade away

I'm not flawless but I'll make you my reason to try Cause I've never done this, but I'm learning to see through you r eyes

I once glamorized all the ways I could hide
If you live for your highs you will die with your lies

And I won't fade away if you don't fade away
