Sensitive Heart

Yoke Lore

I got a sensitive heart
Full up with fits and starts

It's OK if you break it
I won't cry I won't fake it

You got a battle to fight
Your past lives in your foresight

I know when we crash and collide
There's years of hurt in your tail lights

How many hearts are gunna break up
'Till you learn just what you're made of
It's all in the eyes of a the beholder
Don't wear the weight upon your shoulders

I got a sensitive heart
Caught up with keloid scars

I got a mind that's never vacant
I can't change who you are but I can change the way I take it

I know I'm my own worst enemy
I know I'm the only one to set me free

I feel things heavily love weighs on me
Can I learn to let it be

How many hearts are gunna break up
'Till you learn just what you're made of
It's all in the eyes of a the beholder
Don't wear the weight upon your shoulders

How many hearts are gunna break up
'Till you learn just what you're made of
It's all in the eyes of a the beholder
Don't wear the weight upon your shoulders

I got a sensitive heart
Full up with fits and starts

It's OK if you break it
I won't cry I won't fake it

You got a battle to fight
Your past lives in your foresight

I know when we crash and collide
There's years of hurt in your tail lights
