

Remember Raven

Yoko Ono

Aah! ooh!

Aah! ooh!

While you're busy trying to conjure dirt upon me,
Your pony's sucked dry by an african bee.
The muck you rake is not enough to keep your turd at sea,
Remember the raven,
Remember the raven.

While your busy trying to weigh your power,
Your boat's getting into fast water.
Life's going down the river of no return,
Remember raven,
Remember raven.

Don't try to be a warden to history,
While trying to find a seat for your posterity.
You better tend your garden for your family.
Remember raven,
Remember raven.
Judas never got the key to heaven, you know.

Raven, raven, remember raven,
Remember raven.
Raven, raven, remember raven,
Remember raven.
Raven, raven, raven.
