Where do we go from here? Where do we go from here? Where do we go from here?

If we sweep the bottom of the rivers We find bodies that shouldn't be there If we sweep the courts and offices We find heads that shouldn't be there

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well Cats on the hill, ready to kill

Where do we go from here? Where do we go from here? Where do we go from here? Where do we go from here?

If we sweep the shelters and asylums We'll find women that shouldn't be there If we sweep the dark streets and alleys We'll find dealers that shouldn't be there

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well Cats on the hill, ready to kill

Why do we miss you so if you're Just a speck of dust?

Are we getting tired of blood and horror? Are we getting ready for God and terror? Are we getting tired of blood and horror? Are we getting ready for God and terror?

Are we getting tired of blood and horror? (Where do we go from here?)
Are we getting ready for God and terror? (Where do we go from here?)

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well Cats on the hill, ready to kill Dingdong hell, pussy in the well Cats on the hill, ready to kill

Dingdong hell, pussy in the well Cats on the hill, ready to kill Ready to, ready to, ready to Ready to, ready to, ready to

Where do we go from here?
