

Future Enemies

Yola

I know you're feeling how you're feeling
It's a stone cold bitch, this temptation
And you're looking how you're looking
So it's even harder to say no to what I want
Sometimes I think of how I wish I never met you
Then I don't have to forget you
Why don't we just not? So I don't wish I never met you
Maybe we were never meant to

You better believe
Whenever you think that you want it
Whenever you think that you want it
You don't know me
You just think you want this, future enemy
Maybe we could be a little something
Maybe we could be a little something
You don't know me
You just think you want this
Oh, please, please
Oh, oh, please

I knew you wouldn't like me if you knew me as I was
And I feel you just don't hear me
When it's all said and done
Sometimes I think of how I wish I never met you
Then I don't have to forget you
Why don't we just not? So I don't wish I never met you
Maybe we were never meant to

You better believe
Whenever you think that you want it
Whenever you think that you want it
You don't know me
You just think you want this, future enemy
Maybe we could be a little something
Maybe we could be a little something
You don't know me
You just think you want this
Oh, please, please
Oh, oh, please

You better believe
Whenever you think that you want it
Whenever you think that you want it
You don't know me
You just think you want this, future enemy
Maybe we could be a little something
But it's never worth it
And it's really gonna hurt when
You and me are future enemies
So please, please
Oh, oh, please
