YONAKA

All I hear is bla, bla, bla
Oh, I'm so tired of your boring little voice

Get the fuck out my face
I'm trying to think
Get the fuck out my face
I'm not part of your clique
All you do is talk, talk, talk
But you never ever listen
So get the fuck out my face
Before I do something

You think I'm pretty? (Pretty)
You think I'm cute (Cute)
You think I wouldn't never ever say (Boo)
You think I'm petty (Petty)
You think I'm weak (Weak)
You think I should be seen but shouldn't speak
You think I'm angry? You're fucking right
I'm sick and tired always running from the fight
You think I lose?
Shame on you
I'll cut you off before you know that you're old news

So get the fuck out my face
I'm trying to think
Get the fuck out my face
I'm not part of your clique
All you do is talk, talk, talk
But you never ever listen
So get the fuck out my face
Before I do something

How did you think I wasn't gon' get mine
By any means necessary while y'all just waste time?
I ain't even hit my prime yet, all y'all declining
Well I'm struggling to find a reason to give a shit (Ho)
'Cause everything you say sound like a complaint
Shit don't work out because you ain't never pulled your weight
So blessed is the day I get the chance to say
Get the fuck up out my face

So get the fuck out my face
I'm trying to think
Get the fuck out my face
I'm not part of your clique
All you do is talk, talk, talk
But you never ever listen
So get the fuck out my face
Before I do something

I'ma do something crazy if you talk to me again
Do something crazy, baby I am not your friend
Don't get me in trouble now, let's not pretend
That you're the good guy and I just lost my patience
Spent 20 years being talked down to
Now I ain't breaking down, no, especially not for you

I'm a big girl now, I got big girl shoes
I don't need no validation so, fuck you
