

Give Me My Halo

YONAKA

I lay here sober as a judge
Thick as thieves yeah that was us
Now my mind keeps giving me up
Think it's time to get away

Pockets in my jeans got holes
Cause my money see it don't grow
If it's a lesson, have I learnt at all?
Think it's time to get away

Fire up the engine I'm leaving home tonight
And cut away my sins, they're too heavy for the flight

Let hell rain down on my life and allow me to grow (Rain down on my life)
Burn away the parts you don't like I don't care anymore
I wanna feel untouchable
Spread my wings
Fly away
Touch the sky
And breathe it in
So give me my halo
Come on and give me my halo

So take me any
Anywhere but here
Streets are crowded
And they love my tears

I played the room my song
Nobody got up everybody turned off
How do I how do I turn water into gold
When will I feel comfortable being on my own?

Let hell rain down on my life and allow me to grow (Rain down on my life)
Burn away the parts you don't like I don't care anymore
I wanna feel untouchable
Spread my wings
Fly away
Touch the sky
And breathe it in
So give me my halo
Come on and give me my halo

When the tide
The tide comes crashing in
And I've got nothing left to give
Will you deem me fit to swim
And will you water me?
Cause I've, cause I've been here before
And it don't get any easier
Tell me will you help me swim
And will you water me?

Let hell rain down on my life and allow me to grow (Rain down on my life)
Burn away the parts you don't like I don't care anymore
I wanna feel untouchable
Spread my wings

Fly away
Touch the sky
And breathe it in
So give me my halo
Come on and give me my halo
