

Ordinary

YONAKA

Come sit on the edge
You can be honest now no need to pretend
If I did something wrong please do take offense
I want to see you in your emotions again
Again
Again
Again

All this talk is choking me up
You need help and I'm not enough
Know that I'd move heaven and earth to shine a light for you
Tell me then why is it you run
Back to someone you never loved
Tell yourself that it's comfortable and when you know that that's not true

Ohhh is this what you want and
Is this what you came for
You live for the ordinary, ordinary
I see it in your eyes
You lost the fire inside
You got bored of ordinary, ordinary

Let's play make believe
That you had everything that you had ever dreamed
Would you still be happy in reality
Or are you in need of something that's more exciting?

Coz I swear
All this talk is choking me up
You need help and I'm not enough
Know that I'd move heaven and earth to shine a light for you
Tell me then why is it you run
Back to someone you never loved
Tell yourself that it's comfortable
And when you know that that's not true

Ohhh is this what you want and
Is this what you came for
You live for the ordinary, ordinary
I see it in your eyes
You lost the fire inside
You got bored of ordinary, ordinary

Ordinary
Ordinary

Tell me is it worth it?
I'm far from, I'm far and from perfect and
But I picked myself and up and got out of the circus and
I picked myself up and got out of the circus
Does it make and you nervous?
These feeling, these feeling have surfaced and
Tell me who wants to be broken on purpose
Tell me who wants to be broken on purpose

Ohhh is this what you want and
Is this what you came for

You live for the ordinary, ordinary
I see it in your eyes
You lost the fire inside
You got bored of ordinary, ordinary

Ordinary, ordinary
