

Wake Up

YONAKA

Every time I close my eyes
I make some sort of sacrifice
I cheat, deceive, kill all I see
Oh, I'm so glad it's not real life

Oh, three minutes feels like a fortnight
Running from gorillas in the moonlight
Kissing lots of people that I don't like, oh
Men in black are hiding in my bedroom
I'm covered in blood, I'm in a bad mood
Shit just got real

I wake up, wake up in my room
I'm spread out, butt naked, laying next to you
This stuff gets rough, gets tough when I'm asleep
But remember, it's just a bad dream

I fall down the rabbit hole
My teeth are broken, hairs all gone
My boyfriend's with another girl
So I cut their tongues out so they can't be heard

Oh, three minutes feels like a fortnight
Running from gorillas in the moonlight
Kissing lots of people that I don't like, oh

Then I wake up, wake up in my room
I'm spread out, butt naked, laying next to you
This stuff gets rough, gets tough when I'm asleep
But remember, it's just a bad dream

I wake up, I wake up from a bad dream
And I'm not tied up in somebody's basement
I wake up, I wake up from a bad dream
And my boy's laying next to me

Oh, men in black are hiding in my bedroom
I'm covered in blood, I'm in a bad mood
Shit just got real

P Then I wake up, wake up in my room
I'm spread out, butt naked, laying next to you
This stuff gets rough, gets tough when I'm asleep
But remember, it's just a bad dream
Then I wake up, wake up in my room
I'm spread out, butt naked, laying next to you
This stuff gets rough, gets tough when I'm asleep
But remember, it's just a bad dream
