

All Rise

YONAS

It's my time I thought they would have told you, woah, woah!
Got the whole world in the back of the whip and they're yellin', go go!
I won't stop until I die-ie, oh no! Oh no!

It's my time, I told you I could
Now ya boy really out here doing it
And I don't really care if you had other plans... I'm the type of man that'll
ruin it
Told you I ain't playin, when I come up in the game, I'ma bring my whole god
damn crew in it
If we see a loose nail hanging from your coffin we're the type to put a fuck
in' screw in it (Bang!)

This for anybody that hated or over looked me
Told me that I'd fail and tried to tell me I would be Stuck up in the hood where all the killers & crooks be
All it ever did was motivate me and push me
Now I'm in the sky, just dangling from a cloud
Drawing on the sky for people that's looking up
All I'm tryna do is stop from looking down
Every time I do I feel like I'm gettin stuck
They walkin up to me they're tryna give me the crown
They look into my eyes and tell me "you're one of us."
So every time I turn around and face the crowd
I'm feeling like my time is now

It's my time I thought they would have told you, woah, woah!
Got the whole world in the back of the whip and they're yellin', go go!
I won't stop until I die-ie, oh no! Oh no!

It's my time, I told you I could
Now ya boy really out here doing it
And I don't really care if you had other plans... I'm the type of man that'll
ruin it
Told you I ain't playin, when I come up in the game, I'ma bring my whole god
damn crew in it
If we see a loose nail hanging from your coffin we're the type to put a fuck
in' screw in it (Bang!)

This for anybody that's tryna follow a dream
No holding back you'll get it by any means
Idols on the wall you cut from a magazine
Full of self esteem nobody can intervene
Ready for the shine, you never needed the shade
This is for the boss that never gave you a raise
This is for every time you ever tried to create
And none understood they never gave you the space
Walking up to you they're tryna give you the crown
Look into your eye and tell you "you're one of us."
Every time you turn around and face crowd
Be ready cause your time is now

It's my time I thought they would have told you, woah, woah!
Got the whole world in the back of the whip and they're yellin', go go!
I won't stop until I die-ie, oh no! Oh no!

It's my time. (Yup!)

Can't nobody bring me down (no no, no no)
Down oh no, Down oh no no
It's my time. (Yup!)
Can't nobody bring me down (no no, no no)
Down oh no, Down oh no no
It's my time
You ain't 'gon bring me down (oh, woah, oh)
It's my time
Can't nobody bring me down (me down, me down)
Bring me down!

It's my time I thought they would have told you, woah, woah!
Got the whole world in the back of the whip and they're yellin', go go!
I won't stop until I die-ie, oh no! Oh no!
