

I'm Over It

YONAS

Why I'm still in love with you

As soon as forever is through (Okay)
I'll get over everything between us two (Yeah)
I can't understand at all
Why I'm still in love with you (Bring me back, bring me back)
As soon as forever is through (Okay)
I'll get over everything between us two (Yeah)
I can't understand at all
Why I'm still in love with you

Yo

I go in
I'm not like many men
They say the good die young, so I know just how this ends
I'm just tryna hold on to these moments with my friends
And always keep it real, there ain't no reason to pretend
Okay

Yeah

In the club 'til it closes
Part the crowd like Moses
If you're in love, then smell the roses
Never know when it's over
Make history like I was supposed to
Had to learn how to walk around in a room full of them vultures
There's a lot on my shoulders
I'm just tryin' to get closure
They say it's fate when the things you push away only seem to get closer
I tried to push away music and it's the one thing that I love
It kept coming back, guess it's just in my blood
Fuck

As soon as forever is through (Okay)
I'll get over everything between us two (Yeah)
I can't understand at all
Why I'm still in love with you (Bring me back, bring me back)
As soon as forever is through (Okay)
I'll get over everything between us two (Yeah)
I can't understand at all
Why I'm still in love with you

Yo

Why are we so divided?
Need someone to vibe with
I been on my fly shit
All the women excited
Even if you hate a nigga, man, you can never deny it
My crew stay mobbin', we might cause a riot
Now everybody just get up outta my way
(Okay)
The sun's settin', and I been drinkin' all day
(Okay)
Just call me and I'll be on my way
(Okay)
I be on my way, yeah

Yo

These days, I'm forever lit

My shoes, you could never fit

There's superpowers in my melanin, there's messages in my penmanship

When I pull up, don't mention it

'Cause I've been known for makin' entrances

When you talk to greats, better say my name and please say the shit with some emphasis, for real

As soon as forever is through (Okay)

I'll get over everything between us two (Yeah)

I can't understand at all

Why I'm still in love with you (Bring me back, bring me back)

As soon as forever is through (Okay)

I'll get over everything between us two (Yeah)

I can't understand at all

Why I'm still in love with you
