

Looking for you

YONAS

'cause tonight is alive, I can tell deep inside
That you want me to come and find you.
And I know what you say, I can't get out of my head
I just don't know what you expect me to do.
I'm looking for you, I'm looking for you.
I'm looking for you, do you look for me, too?
I can tell that you do.

Good time in the air, can you feel that?
Gotta drink, no ice, can you chill that?
I play by me, wanna feel that?
Got no time for the noise, can you kill that?
New school style, old school slow
Part of our lifestyle, yes, I know.
I came a long way from the club time brakes
Now everywhere I go I pump up kicks.
See me pulse eye with the record,
Lay back on the beach chillax, oh
Setting transville, let the train set us
Rocking the vile and you know I got a fresh cut.
And you know my quotes, I fill the world up with so much dope
But I fill the world up with so much hope, so this contradiction is in all my notes.
Fuck that, go to states on a drill, nigger, got a whole world fucking with a real nigger
And is really no reason to fight.

'cause tonight is alive, I can tell deep inside
That you want me to come and find you.
And I know what you say, I can't get out of my head
I just don't know what you expect me to do.
I'm looking for you, I'm looking for you.
I'm looking for you, do you look for me, too?
I can tell that you do.

And I got that sound for the radio,
But I'm too damn real they don't play me
So I take it back to the soul like 1986, 85, 84.
Put your lighters in the air for me one time
Two steps to the sound and the drum line
Well I'm from where it's hard to find sunshine
So we don't really give a fuck about a punchline.
Oh, damn, I'm fresh! Oh, damn, girl! Damn, that dress!
Make a man think in pure thoughts while I'm looking at all that flesh.
So dim the lights real low, I paint the future with my light year flow
And it's really no reason to fight.

'cause tonight is alive, I can tell deep inside
That you want me to come and find you.
And I know what you say, I can't get out of my head
I just don't know what you expect me to do.
I'm looking for you, I'm looking for you.
I'm looking for you, do you look for me, too?
I can tell that you do.
