

Missing You

YONAS

I'm feeling lost, I'm feeling blue
And darling I am missing you
Been on the road, in hotel rooms
And darling I been missing you

Yeah uh
The shit is sad like end of the summer
Do I choose love, do I choose to come up
I become a man in so many different ways
When it come to you I'm so stuck in my ways yeah

I'm getting spotted in places I never used to get noticed
But with my loved one I'm losing my focus
So even as a superstar when I'm far from where home is
I'm missing you cause you're my star at the moment

I'm feeling lost, I'm feeling blue
And darling I am missing you
Been on the road, in hotel rooms
And darling I been missing you

Been missing you
Been missing you
Been missing you
Been missing you

Oh-oh I know you know
This is everything I dreamed of
Oh I know you know
You're still everything I dreamed of

Why don't do mind to have a mind that got a mind of its own
I know you're mine despite the times when
I can't sleep cause I'm all alone

I'm feeling lost, I'm feeling blue
And darling I am missing you
Been on the road, in hotel rooms
And darling I been missing you

Been missing you
Been missing you
Been missing you
Been missing you
