

Wait a Minute

YONAS

I tried to tell 'em that we on a new wave
You should know 'cause we do this everyday
So wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute yeah
I tried to tell 'em that we on a new wave
You should know 'cause we do this everyday
So wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute yeah

Thoughts to say complacent
They get locked inside my basement
I stay high up on these trees
Like hockey mask on face of Jason
I go in
Who I'm facing not gon win
I stay laced on shots of gin
When our reign is not gon end
So just watch as I begin
My time, nigga this ain't even my prime
But it is my season, there's a reason
You're having trouble reaching this high
Every time I breathe I design
A master piece or refine
I'm a beast and it's time to feast on a decent meal
It brings peace to my mind
Okay

I'ma be the one to get it in like
No one ever got it in make your mind spin
I should be there but a nigga got spare
'Cause this shit I got is rare, oh yeah
Hella haters never celebrate us
'Cause they under educated when they come to the greatest
Hella haters never celebrate us
'Cause they under educated when they come to the greatest
Hold up

I tried to tell 'em that we on a new wave
You should know 'cause we do this everyday
So wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute yeah
I tried to tell 'em that we on a new wave
You should know 'cause we do this everyday
So wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute, hold on
Wait a minute yeah

Please inspect my sound bites
Boy you know my sound right
Dirty yeah I'm down right

These other dudes so clown like
They be like oh hey Jesus
He be making them wave moves
Seven now I'm still paying dues
And that thanks to the city I was raised through Bullet cases, sweet faces
Street paintings of Martin Luther
After hours, club nights
Bump and grind, Kama Sutra
It's the gift that makes us allusive
Some stays some chuck the deuces
Either way man fuck excuses
I'm riding the waves to fuck the loser like

I'ma be the one to get it in like
No one ever got it in make your mind spin
I should be there but a nigga got spare
'Cause this shit I got is rare, oh yeah
Hella haters never celebrate us
'Cause they under educated when they come to the greatest

'Cause they under educated when they come to the greatest
Hold up

I tried to tell 'em that we on a new wave
