

Rambler's Anthem

Yonder Mountain String Band

I've seen the setting sun in California
Her mountain winds they howl and moan
And I've seen that half-moon rising up above
To the sound of the train that'll carry me home

Chorus:

I've been a-roamin' (I've been a-roamin')
I've been a-ramblin' (I've been a-ramblin')
Thirty days on the road, baby I'll be home soon

Now it's been a month or more here since i've seen you
When I left home in the middle of the night
Well it was wrong to leave, but I've been good since I've been gone
And I'm coming back to put things right

[ Chorus ]

For my whole life I've heard the highway calling
Spent most of it between two white lines
Now I don't want to wind up alone
So I'm bound to change my ramblin' mind
