

Silly Plans

YonKaGor

I want to fly
To the country you reside
To a world where I can hold your hand
But that's my silly plan

To walk me through
And to share an endless view
Of a brand new and exotic land
And that's your silly plan

But right now
In a distant timezone
You're still awaiting, a ringtone on your phone

Maybe someday
We can both live far away
In Toronto, Berlin or Japan
And that's our silly plan

But right now
In a distant timezone
You're still awaiting a ringtone on your phone

Maybe some day
We can both live far away
In Toronto, Berlin or Japan
And that's my silly plan
No, that's your silly plan
And that's our silly plan
