You know how much I love you
You know how much I care
You get me into trouble
Even when you're not there
So I got a new tattoo
And then I cut my hair
I'll buy some magazines
Burn all the clothes I wear

And I even started smokin'
Just to fill the empty air
I go through all these changes
And you're still unaware
That I-I-I-I-I'm burnin' up inside
Gotta let you know

I'm still addicted
I'm so addicted to you
I'm so addicted
I'm so addicted, it's true

I'm still addicted
I'm still addicted to you
I'm so addicted
I'm so addicted, it's true

I'm so addicted, 'dicted
'Dicted, 'dicted
I'm so addicted, 'dicted
'Dicted, 'dicted

I'm so addicted, 'dicted to you
'Dicted, 'dicted
I'm so addicted, 'dicted
'Dicted, 'dicted

So I hit up my shaman
For pharmaceuticals
I need to pacify my urge to go give you a call
And then I drank some whiskey
And then I smoked some weed
My eyes looked like James Franco's
You really won't believe

And I learned to smile in pictures
And how to tell them lies
'Cause I go through all these changes
But you still don't realize
That I-I-I-I-I'm burnin' up inside
Can't let you go

I'm still addicted
I'm so addicted to you
I'm so addicted
I'm so addicted, it's true

I'm still addicted

I'm still addicted to you
Can only spend my money on you or rent
Guess I'm gonna get evicted

I'm so addicted, 'dicted
'Dicted, 'dicted
I'm so addicted, 'dicted
'Dicted, 'dicted

I'm so addicted, 'dicted to you
'Dicted, 'dicted
I'm so addicted, 'dicted
'Dicted, 'dicted

And now I needed to feel fine again
I needed to feel fine again
You know I needed to feel fine again
Fine again, fine again

And I needed to feel fine again
I needed to feel fine again
You know I need you to feel fine again
You know I need you to feel fine again
You know I need you to feel fine again
Fine again, fine
