

Blind

Yoshi Flower

It's alright to not be fine
As long as your hand stays locked in mine
It's hard sometimes
To find the tears to cry
You go out late night
You wake up then grind

To get the money (mmmm)
Just lie and say you love me (mmmm)
For some fortune and fame
We ignore all the pain
Because you gotta be somebody

Singing "la da da da da da da"
We're all blind but I see you in my mind
In my ma ma ma ma ma ma mind
We're all blind but I see you when I close my eyes

You're breaking my heart
Taking and shaking my heart
Watch as I'm falling apart
We fuck on the floor and the car
Sound the alarm
Follow the scratch on my arm
And I'm doing everything I said I would never do
A chip on my shoulder
A point to prove
Everyone said I was bad for you
Don't wanna lose

I need the money (mmmm)
Just lie and say you love me (mmmmmm)
You're a fortunate one
Going out having fun
It must feel good to be somebody

Singing "la da da da da da da"
We're all blind but I see you in my mind
In my ma ma ma ma ma ma mind
We're all blind but I see you when I close my eyes
When I close my eyes...

We're all blind but I see you when I close my eyes
Oh
We're all blind but I see you when I close my eyes
