

Crash Test Dummy

Yoshi Flower

Crash test dummies
We keep on risking it all
Tell me you love me before we hit the wall
If I saw the future it would not change my mind
Stubborn as concrete
Woah

I'd do it all over again
Even if I knew how it ends
I'd do it all over again
Even if I knew how it ends

Past tense memories
Keep on breaking me down
It's unrelenting
Repeat, reset, just don't forget
There's a heart inside me somewhere
I swear to god

I'd do it all over again
Even if I knew how it ends
I'd do it all over again
Even if I knew how it ends
No

There's a heart inside me somewhere
(I swear to god)
There's a heart inside me somewhere
(I swear to god)
There's a heart inside me somewhere
(I swear to god)
There's a heart inside me somewhere
