

Pray 4 U

Yoshi Flower

We drove for an hour
Just to see the neon flowers
I wish this was our only memory
But my heart was devoured
Busy asking higher powers
Why you gotta make this bittersweet?

8pm comes screaming in
And I realize that I daydreamed the day away

So I pray for you
That's the only thing that I know how to do
You know you're my hero
And everytime you leave home
I pray for you

We were all distracted
Then it stopped and love reacted
Counting all the days turned into weeks
I heard there's a reason
But it's so hard to believe in
When my brother keeps his mask on while we speak

8pm comes screaming in
I'm talking to myself
Hope you're ok
I wish I could say it to your face

So I pray for you
That's the only thing that I know how to do
You know you're my hero
And everytime you leave home
I pray for you
