

Drowning

Yot Club

Walk through the garden crying
It's all routine to you
Making a mountain of nothing
Might as well take in the view

It's all been done before
You're saving all your time
But I'm drowning for some more
And you're drowning

You say there's a new moon rising
To shorten up the day
Fateful as the morning window
Dusting off the page

It's all been done before
You're saving all your time
But I'm drowning for some more
And you're drowning
