

It's a lesson
You'd blessed him
You heard it all the time
Feel the heat from the pressure
It's starting to unwind
Sometimes it feels like a movie
But I can't rewind
If I could tell what I'm doing
I'd leave it all behind (yeah)

I can see through the sky
The fish below me
They can't tell
When they lie awake
At night
Wondering how when or why
I take my things and
Move into the ocean today

Yes, it's a lesson
You'd blessed him
You heard it all the time
Feel the heat from the pressure
It's starting to unwind
Sometimes it feels like a movie
But I can't rewind
If I could tell what I'm doing
I'd leave it all behind

I can see through the sky
The fish below me
They can't tell
When they lie awake
At night
Wondering how when or why
I take my things and
