

Always felt like you were gonna stick around
Since you left me, things have been upside down
You told me I was good at givin' what you want
But I know that's a lie
I wanted to be yours, you're walkin' out the door
But to no one's surprise

You turn into a stranger
Could've seen it coming, it's human nature
Everyone's gonna leave sooner or later
Two years to running, but I'm no savior
It's looking like I turn into stranger
Could've seen it coming, it's human nature
Everyone's gonna leave sooner or later
Two years to running, but I'm no savior
I won't be looking back

Saw you last night, said your man was out of town
Gave me, passin' luck is when you wanna bound
Such a pity I was ready to follow you home
But then I looked in your eyes
You were just playing the same game that I keep Losing every time

I wanna turn you back into a stranger
Could've seen it coming, it's human nature
Everyone's gonna leave sooner or later
Two years to running, but I'm no savior
It's looking like I turn into stranger
Could've seen it coming, it's human nature
Everyone's gonna leave sooner or later
Two years to running, but I'm no savior
I won't be looking back
