

Better Day

Young Bombs

Ain't no better day for love
On the rocks here sipping juice
My fingers tracing the outlines of your heart tattoo
No one to tell us what to do
Oh, I'm ready for love, for you
I'm staring at your silhouette
I watch the golden lights surround you
When the sun begins to set
Still got one crazy night ahead
You know I'm ready

I know we ain't no angels
I know we ain't no gods
But heaven shining down on us

Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day for love

No pretending we're asleep
Our body language says it all
No, we don't need to sleep
Just tell me underneath the sheet
Oh, I'm ready for you, for me

I know we ain't no angels
I know we ain't no gods
And I know that we ain't perfect
I know we ain't no angels
I know we ain't no gods
But heaven shining down on us

Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day for love

I know we ain't no angels
I know we ain't no gods
And I know that we ain't perfect
I know we ain't no angels
I know we ain't no gods
But heaven shining down on us

Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day (Ain't no better)
Ain't no better day (Ain't no better)
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day (Ain't no better)
Ain't no better day (Ain't no better)
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day for love

Love (Ain't no better)
Love (Ain't no better)
Love (Ain't no better day for love)
Love (Ain't no better)
Love (Ain't no better)
Love (Ain't no better day for love)
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day for love
Ain't no better day (Ain't no better)
Ain't no better day (Ain't no better)
Ain't no better day
Ain't no better day for love
