

Let You Down

Young Bombs

You talk back
Running 'round in circles
So I call it
No I don't deserve this

Cause you been out late
Say you with your friends you fucking liar
Playin' with fire, well...
If this is love
I'm better sleeping on my own
If you're the one
Then baby I don't wanna know
Yeah it's time to take a bow
It's funny that you think I'll come around
Let me let you down

Let me let you down down, let me let you down
Let me let you down down, let me let you
You're too high up off the ground

If this is love
I'm better sleeping on my own
If you're the one
Then baby I don't wanna know
Yeah it's time to take a bow
It's funny that you think I'll come around
Let me let you down

Way you begging gonna say u miss me
It's pathetic, saw u with 'em last week
Well, I'm sorry that I treated u so fucking precious
Wasted my breath, yeah
If this is love
I'm better sleeping on my own
If you're the one
Then baby I don't wanna know
Yeah it's time to take a bow
It's funny that you think I'll come around
So let me let you down

Let me let you, oh, let me let you down down
Let me let you, you're too high up off the ground
Let me let you, let me let you down down
Let me let you, let me let you down

Let me let you down

It's funny that you think I'll come around
So let me let you down

Let me let you down down, let me let you down
Let me let you down down, let me let you
You're too high up off the...

Ground
(Let me let you, let me let you down down
Let me let you)

You're too high up off the
Ground
(Let me let you, let me let you down down
Let me let you)

So let me let you down

You're too high up, too high up, too high up too high
You're too high up, too high up, too high up too high
You're too high up, too high up, too high up too high
You're too high up, too high up
So let me let you down
