

I'm problematic
It's automatic
They say I'm a waste a
Pretty face with a
Reckless taste and I
Can't help myself I'm Burning bridges
Counting stitches
Everyday it's Someone different
There's something missing

Then I found you
In all of the mistakes that led me to your place
I know that somethings changed cause I wanna stay

I've never been loyal
I've always been selfish with my love
Was running in circles
But It's you I run to now
Forget what they told ya
I'm leaving my habits at the door
I've never been loyal
But I'll always be loyal to you

I was a liar
I lit a fire
But never with you I'll
Keep it honest
That's a promise
To hold me to
You got me living
This new religion
There's no going back now
Something's different
Nothing's missing

And I found you
In all of the mistakes that led me to your place
I know that somethings change cause I wanna stay

I've never been loyal
I've always been selfish with my love
Was running in circle
But It's you I run to now
Forget what they told ya
I'm leaving my habits at the door
I've never been loyal
But I'll always be loyal to you
