

Strangers

Young Bombs

Right when I met you
Your love was a rare piece of art
But things aren't so simple
If only I knew who you were from the start

Restless highs
No expectations
Only drunken fights
Made me want to hate you
Since this isn't right
I can't change it, so let's just fake it now

Can we just be strangers for the night?
Pretend I don't know that you still cross my mind
Yea, can we just be strangers for tonight?
And if we start to fall promise me that you'll lie
Can we just be strangers? Strangers
Can we just be strangers? Strangers
Can we just be strangers?...

I wish I felt nothing
Fight off the feelings for fun
Go off the deep end
Still sinking in, since the damage is done

Restless highs
No expectations
Only drunken fights
Made me want to hate you
Since this isn't right
I can't change it, so let's just fake it now

Can we just be strangers for the night?
Pretend I don't know that you still cross my mind
Yea, can we just be strangers for tonight?
And if we start to fall promise me that you'll lie
Can we just be strangers? Strangers
Can we just be strangers? Strangers
Can we just be strangers?...

Can we just be strangers for the night?
Pretend I don't know that you still cross my mind
Yea, can we just be strangers for tonight?
And if we start to fall promise me that you'll lie
Can we just be strangers? Strangers
Can we just be strangers? Strangers
Can we just be strangers?...
