Shot a nigga through the heart who hide behind a fucking tree

Don't know about what they do

Can't speak about their business
Don't care about who they is

Officer I'm just like you both of us don't have a clue
Hey there's no questions you can ask me
So why do y'all harrass me
Them realers just went pass me
Hey I don't know 'bout Ashley
I'm watching first 48 God damn and they interrogate
And soon I see these niggas shake best know I know they ain't gonna break
Making suggestions 'bout these witness protections
Pussy niggas be stressing they end up confessing
Loose lips sank ships keep it simple catch a clip
With my dirt about my lonely 'cause I will never flip

Er'body shooting so I can't be without it
They killing in my city but I don't talk about it
They asking but you better
Tell 'em ho, I don't know
Tell 'em ho, I don't know
Tell 'em ho, I don't know
