Young Buck

Broken promises let me acknowledge this trap stories bout some niggas who used to move the packs for me street dreams tryna get that porsche carrera i bought birds through that whole bling bling era you spent yours on just buyin whateva if you like it i love it, if you did it i done it but i didnt see it comin cuz the water kept runnin yeah the wat er kept runnin now im floodin the town bitches always wanted me but they lovin me now i shoot off in the face and hustle up in the house but the block got hot i aint quit i just chilled niggas thought it was over and they all disappeared they all balled with me, kept em fresh to death the feds came in town, they left me by myself (but i just kept it movin) now i am still shinin, they aint got nothin left the same ones that hate on me look like they need some help (But i just keep it movin)