Young Buck

You know you need me, I'm your paycheck
I'm a check
Work for every dollar that I get
Where my check?
You can't leave me, I'm your paycheck
I'm your check
Really ain't no reason why I ain't got rich yet
I been waking up and working for this money
For this check
I been hustin I deserve to get this money
Get this check
I'm a paycheck
You're looking at your paycheck

I'm clocking in again (Yup!)
Where my check?
Still searching for a way out hoping one day this gonna pay out
Waiting to wake up and don't have to pull this AK out (What?)
Gangstas never leave we get rich and move way out
(Move way out)
I told these niggas one day that bullshit gonna play out
My dawg got out the cage
He was hungry watched him stray out
Instead of find food
He got killed his first day out
Shorty think I'm rude
Why is that?
I just told the bitch straight out
I catch with another dude
You might as well stay out (bitch)
I used to run the cars as a kid with my yay out
Fuckin with my check is some shit I do not play bout (nah)

You know you need me, I'm your paycheck
I'm a check

Tell me I ain't worth it
Imma ask u what you worth
As long as we got it it don't matter who get it first
Imma tell u niggas straight up
My lil homie comin home to get his cake up
He got one day and a wake up
10 years straight and he never pick the weight up (never)
Say he can't wait to come home and pick some weight up (trap)
Hit em with a [?] pass the niggas bitch they lay up (Damn)

Im gonna call a timeout if you niggas do not pay up
Referee the game with both my arms stay up
(Whats that?)
Call it a touchdown
Better not fuck the play up
(Buckshot)
