

The Blues

Young Buck

I give niggas the blues like an LA county jump suit hop inside the phantom like the nigga Donald Trump do and just cruise control until I lose control these rubberband tires sitting on two's and four's I pick and choose my foes and with abusive flows I set traps so no rat can climb through his hole touch my cheddar bring out baretta's trying to floss be a boss we do 6 hundreds or better chopping up raw lettuce my bitch got a coke fetish still a fan cause she running through lines like Jerome Bettis Iced out Coogi sweater, air ones, Louie checker belt got me swimming through these bitches like Mike Phelps drop top phantom so the World know I'm hazing catch contact high while I listen to Miles Davis lay my head back and just cruise Tommy turn down the muthafucking bass and give niggas the blues

Yeah I give niggas the blues drumma boy adjust the bass and give niggas the blues
I give niggas the blues

been through it the picture you see now I drew it service myself change the oil and transmission fluid Mel Gibson on these hoes on these 24's I'm still the truth in this game full of Pinnochio's filed bankrupt like what you gon take next from me then I bought a jet for me, call it IRS money its money, power, respect buddy you wrong respect power and money now what the fuck is you on this a dessert storm I get my Clue on standing in a room full of bloods with my blue on revolver on my waist but the barrell on it too long can't even fucking move, I aint used to having no suit on I'm doing what I do, ya'll don't think I moved on with or without a crew my bills is still due on the first like you pull up in anything bitch I'm BB King and I break the rules I will give niggas the blues

take drumma boy beat and give niggas the blues yeah
