

Real Life

Young Dolph

Yeah

Yeah you know I came up from shit man

Literally

Know what I'm sayin', but don't nothing stay the same forever though, ya' mean?

Yeah

I ain't never wanted nothin' in my whole life but some fucking money

(That's all I ever wanted)

Fuck them bitches, they gon' always be around young nigga, 'long as you get your money

(Ay fuck them bitches young nigga, get your paper)

Got enough choppers in the attic to supply a whole army (ay, hey!)

And if you getting real cake in these streets, you better watch your closest homies (better watch 'em)

I done seen a broke nigga get rich

I done seen a rich nigga go broke

I done seen a college girl turned to a ho

I done seen a spoiled young nigga start kicking doors

I know these bitches watching, let me strike a pose

Everything gone, nigga the trap closed

I almost died, I came that close

But grandma always prayed for me, that's why I'm still in it

Flipped over in a fatal car wreck and I'm still living

No matter wherever I go I'm still Memphis

I know a 60 year old nigga still pimpin'

And a 60 year old nigga still crippin'

I ain't never wanted nothin' in my whole life but some fucking money

(That's all I ever wanted)

Fuck them bitches, they gon' always be around young nigga, 'long as you get your money

(Ay fuck them bitches young nigga, get your paper)

Got enough choppers in the attic to supply a whole army (ay, hey!)

And if you getting real cake in these streets, you better watch your closest homies (better watch 'em)

You can't come up because you loyal to the wrong shit

Won't be loyal to the plug but loyal to the bitch

I just got 50 in, I just hit a lick

Bust down Dae Dae, look at the flick of the wrist

I used to didn't have shit

Now I got a whole lot of everything

A lot of nigga's bitches on my dick

And a whole lot of gold chains

And a whole lot of bread nigga

That come with a lot of head nigga

You could've took the same chances that I took but you was scared nigga

Thumbin' through a check, plottin' on the next one

Live life to the fullest 'cause you only get one

Whatever I go buy, I go get the best one

Dolph Gabana, nothing like the rest of 'em

I ain't never wanted nothin' in my whole life but some fucking money

(That's all I ever wanted)

Fuck them bitches, they gon' always be around young nigga, 'long as you get your money

(Ay fuck them bitches young nigga, get your paper)

Got enough choppers in the attic to supply a whole army (ay, HEY!)

And if you getting real cake in these streets, you better watch your closest homies (better watch 'em)
