

Stranglehold

Young Empires

When I dream, feel the blood stream
Climbing up the grapevine, the grapevine
What I need is to hear a heartbeat
Beating on the red line, the red line

Night falls over us
We rise like a flood

My veins are full
Like a stranglehold
I can feel your pulse
In the afterglow

When your time has come look at what you've done
Only happens once in awhile

Your veins are full
Your veins are full
Like a stranglehold

It might seem in the high beams
Nothing is invisible, invisible
When the chain finally breaks
He becomes physical, it's physical

Night falls over us
We rise like a flood

My veins are full
Like a stranglehold
I can feel your pulse
In the afterglow

When your time has come look at what you've done
Only happens once in awhile

Your veins are full
Your veins are full
Like a stranglehold, hold
Like a stranglehold, hold

My veins are full
Like a stranglehold
My veins are full
My veins are full
Like a stranglehold, hold
Like a stranglehold, hold

My veins are full
(Hold, hold)
My veins are full
(Hold, hold)

Like a stranglehold
