

Sunshine

Young Empires

So wave goodbye, don't say good night
I swear somehow, that you're the only one
I think about

The sunshine in my dreams
It's too dark to wake me up
No angels come no shadows fall
Since I've been away
I can't get you, get you out of my mind
I can't get you, get you all the time

Somewhere, somehow
We're gonna find out without
I swear right now, we could be anyone
I have no doubt

The sunshine in my dreams
It's too dark to wake me up
No angels come no shadows fall
Since I've been away
I can't get you, get you out of my mind
I can't get you, get you all the time
I can't get you, get you out of my mind
I can't get you, get you all the time

Down cause I was bouncing
I was falling
You were there taking my hand
You were there, you were there, oh

I can't get you, get you out of my mind
I can't get you, get you all the time
I can't get you, get you out of my mind
I can't get you, get you all the time
