

Shoot Me Down

Young Fathers

Ooh baby, ooh baby, ooh baby, don't shoot me down
Ooh baby, yes baby, don't baby, don't shoot me down
Ooh baby, yes baby, ooh baby, don't shoot me down
Ooh baby, yes baby, don't baby, don't shoot me down

Lord I know every dog has its day, that's what they say
She placed a kiss upon my temple and blew them thoughts away
Bury me a body, serenade the song
We're having me a party, throw my ashes to the throng
Keep 'em dancing all night long

Oh baby, yes baby, please baby, don't shoot me down
Oh baby, yes baby, oh baby, don't shoot me down
Oh baby, oh baby, please baby, don't shoot me down, down

It goes around and around
Like a dog chasing tail
The danger I adore
You keep on missing me

They keep on missing me
They keep on missing me
They keep on missing me
The danger I adore
They keep on missing me

She placed a kiss upon my temple
They keep on missing me
She placed a kiss upon my temple
Missing me
She placed a kiss upon my temple
And blew them thoughts away
And blew them thoughts away
And blew them thoughts aw-
