

Paranoid

Young Guns

All eyes on me
What they see is not reality
I know I feel so incomplete
I was everyone else so fully realized

Ooh, now nothing's changed for me
Yet I'm not who I used to be
I can't recall, oh no
Take me away
Everyone's watching you
I know what it's like
I'm afraid
We're the same
When lies can hurt the truth
I'm paranoid and so are you
Paranoid and so are you

It takes from me
This anxiety it leaves you hollowed out
I'm filling up with doubt
With all the lights and all left out
Cause somewhere along the way I forgot just how to say

I know where I belong
I'm not It won't define me no more

Take me away
Everyone's watching you
I know what it's like
I'm afraid
We're the same
When lies can hurt the truth
I'm paranoid and so are you
Paranoid and so are you

Look at you
Are you afraid?
They won't like what they see, oh
They're gonna get you
I know we're both the same
We're both the same
So don't be afraid

Take me away
Everyone's watching you
I know what it's like
I'm afraid
We're the same
When lies can hurt the truth
I'm paranoid and so are you

I'm paranoid
I'm paranoid and so are you
When lies can hurt the truth
I'm paranoid and so are you
