B-I-G, put your heels and your lace fronts on, let these mother fuckers know (Motherfuckers know)
B-I-G, if you make your own money, yes bitch, let me see you get more (Get more)
B-I-G, this for the spots with the burglar bars, still keep the choppas by the door (By the door)
B-I-G, put your bottles and your buss downs up if you fuck with Big Sno (Big Sno)

No introduction needed, fuck it, I'm still conceited
I'm on that Billy Jean, I took the fork and beat it
I cannot be defeated, I cannot be deleted
I seen that snow call, I know you niggas need it
Seen how I beat the streets, seen how I beat the beefs
I did it my way, Sinatra to say the least
Just for the thrill of it, back on that dealer shit
Pull up like, "Fuck the car, I bought the dealership"
Compare me to Pac, nigga, compare them to Joc, nigga
The day I don't wake up, the day that I flop, nigga
Before all the platinum plaques, really was countin' stacks
Transaction at Phipps Plaza, we did the deal at Saks

B-I-G, put your heels and your lace fronts on, let these mother fuckers know (Motherfuckers know)
B-I-G, if you make your own money, yes bitch, let me see you get more (Get more)

Don't fuck with petty niggas, don't fuck with petty hoes
Hear all the shit you're sayin', but why ain't he been exposed?
Can't slow my hustle down, 'cause I know the bread watchin'
Rarely be takin' pictures, still think the feds watchin'
My run was legendary, my run was necessary
In the city, the big dog, I am the Tyler Perry
My life a whole movie, still ride with an old Uzi
Back of that Mulsanne, still playin' that old Boosie
Y'all know I set it off, y'all know I weighed the soft
No sprint, it's a marathon, so y'all know I never lost
I came from the best grams, I made the best yams
They runnin', they dick suckers, I'm runnin' Def Jam

B-I-G, put your heels and your lace fronts on, let these mother fuckers know (Motherfuckers know)
