

Madame Butterfly

Young MC

madame, madame, madame butterfly I just cannot, cannot, cannot tell you why you're so pleasing, pleasing, pleasing to my eye cause you're butter, butter, butter and you're fly now the first time ever I saw you face it was love at first sight in a public place see you moved through the room with such style and grace and like a sweet peice of candy yes I wanted a taste sex appeal in blue it was real and true like Chaka Kahn said girl I feel for you but what I had to do was just chill take my time cause my main objective was to make you mine divine and every synonym that's related it's taken many years but I'm glad that we waited debated on weither I should make the push because this bird in a hen is worth ten in the bush oh yes intellectual heterosexual have you coming back for more baby I bet you will see what I mean when you look in my eyes an I can tell you from the heart you're my madame butterfly now madame let me tell you one thing for sure when I first came across you I was immature didn't see all the changes life would put me through and I know you can realte cause you were young then too I had a chance to flip but no I did not trip stumbiling through meaningless relationships baby I give you a tip and you should follow the trend sometimes your best lovers comes from your best friends do you remember those late night's on the phone ain't nobody in the room but we're never alone and I tell you some lady tried to tear me apart the same time some punk tried to break your heart and at that point it never really crossed my mind that I wanted to be with you til the end of time see I grew to love you that's precisly why I can tell you from the heart you're my madame butterfly now many days have passed sort of crazy fast and I think that I have come out of my haze at last put myself to task and underwent the test to see if this was real or if I was just obsessed but it's not obsession I've learned my lesson and grew with you through a true progression and sting wrote a song that occured to me that if you love somebody you should set them free see you've been important to me in my life and in the fairytale ending you would be my wife but sometimes fairytales don't come true and this won't if you don't feel the same way too cause all the things you've done for me I can't measure the days and nights memories that we treasure the time we spend as friends brings me pleasure so it makes no sense to get tense and bring pressure so if you want a friend than it's fine with me and baby if you want a lover you know where I'll be but if I find another woman than I tell her why I became a better man knowing madame butterfly
